Bryn Mawr Classical Review 2004.07.43

In Catafalque Peter Kingsley brings together an extraordinary set of credentials: a body of unequalled scholarship, literary skills which are to none, and a rare grasp of the living nature of things that lies beyond the constructs of our thought. In his unique regard both for the transcendent and for the delicate and ephemeral, he is a servant of the Lord indeed."

The Oracle Partnership - Unique, Agenda-Setting Foresight

This is the true story of Parmenides, Empedocles, and those like them: spiritual guides and experts in other states of consciousness, hermetic interpreters of dreams, prophets and magicians who laid the foundation for the world we now live in. Reality documents the excruciating process that led to their work and teaching being distorted, covered over, forgotten.
